

The interior designer's guide to New York Design Week

Posted on Monday, May 05, 2014.

Design of all disciplines will take New York City by storm later this week with the start of the second annual NYCxDESIGN festival (May 9 – 20), which includes more than 300 events at venues throughout the city. Whether at home, at work, or somewhere in between, you're likely to be within a stone's throw from a New York Design Week event or exhibition.

Kick off of the inaugural NYCxDESIGN week, May 2013

A collaboration between NYC & Company, NYCEDC, City agencies, the Mayor's Office, City Council, and a steering committee, NYCxDESIGN aims to create a collaborative platform, elevate design practices and increase awareness of and appreciation for design.

Editor at Large has edited down the multitude of events in this essential event guide to help interior designers navigate the week.

Design Fairs, Markets, Shows and Festivals

Tables by Wexler Gallery, exhibitors at Collective 2

Collective 2 (May 8 – 11) features installations, exhibitions and a series of talks. Highlights include a solo show of work by Dutch designer Hella Jongerius; Collective Settings, a collaboration between gallerists and interior designers; Focus: Scandinavia, a curated selection of works from Nordic cultures; and an exhibition of student projects from Design Academy Eindhoven in The Netherlands.